

ERCP is a minimally invasive procedure for the diagnosis and treatment of biliary and pancreatic diseases. It is performed using a specialized endoscope that allows for the visualization of the biliary and pancreatic ducts. ERCP is highly effective for the diagnosis and treatment of a wide range of conditions, including gallstones, strictures, and tumors of the biliary and pancreatic ducts.